

Midnight Messiah had the honour of opening the 2014 edition of Hard Rock Hell, and started the party with a bang! It was a great weekend and the band would like to thank the organisers, stage crew, sound and lighting guys and all who watched the show for the fantastic response. We hope to see you all again very soon! In the meantime, there is a selection of videos of the band's performance in the videos section.